Elections & policy impact us.

Politicians and bureaucrats are making decisions that directly impact our workplaces and contracts. Bosses, their lawyers, and their lobbyists clearly have a voice in the Legislature. We need to make sure our interests are represented.

Bosses influence elections & policy.

Here are a few examples:

- Downs Rachlin Martin is a union-busting law firm working with management against a number of AFT-VT locals. During the primary elections this year, a former managing partner at DRM, ran a SuperPAC to prop-up Democrats friendly to their interests.
- The President of the Burlington City Council, Ben Traverse, works as a union-busting lawyer for the UVM Health Network against our members' interests at the table and in the workplace.
- Bosses across the state spend large sums of money every year lobbying politicians in Montpelier, drowning out our voices, and our communities.

How to Vote

1. Vote in person on election day Tuesday, Nov. 3rd.
Most polling locations in Vermont are open 7am-7pm
2. Vote early by mail. Vermont automatically mails ballots to all qualified voters by October 1st
3. Vote early in person at your town or city clerk's office or by mail.
